“ Danny was always a fixture for me growing up in Union City and Hornbeak, was always a part of any family event with the Blackleys, and was a prominent member of the community in myriad ways. My memories of him are all fond, without a single exception. His passing is tremendously sad, but a good reminder that what we do with our time here matters, that support for and positive interactions with other people of all stripes (as Danny never failed to achieve) comprise a more important legacy than any other accomplishment.##imported-begin##Jason Woods##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear of Danny's passing. He was one of the most loyal Rebel basketball fans I have ever seen. He and I would talk about the Cardinals every chance I would see him. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.##imported-begin##Robin Cude##imported-end##

“ To the family of Danny Blackey we are so sorry for the loss of your loved one. Danny was a remarkable young man who loved Rebel basketball but if the referees made a bad call Danny would let them know. That smile of his would warm your heart. You will truly be missed Danny. Thank you for being my friend....Deborah and Daniel##imported-begin##Deborah Lockwood and Daniel Augustus##imported-end##
