“ To the Family of Mrs. Georgia:
In times like these we must fall on Jesus for our strength. May He provide peace in your hearts during your time of grieving.
Mrs. Georgia was a blessing to me in my early ministry at Aldridge and you could always depend on her to lift your spirits. Now Jesus has rewarded her faithfulness by bringing her to Him.
May God richly bless you and yours during your time of loss

“ As a young child visiting family in Tennessee, I strived to find adults that had patience, understanding and a kind heart that would forgive the mischief that I often made. This was the Aunt Georgia I knew and the one who helped shape my thoughts and actions growing up. She is well loved and missed by all the Duren family. Love you Aunt Georgia.##imported-begin##Billy Duren##imported-end##
