“ Just last week I had a remembering dream. I was remembering the summer I stayed with Aunt Inez and Uncle Haley. It was a great experience for me the city kid from Lansing, Michigan. I remember the crafts Inez made and she sent some home with me that summer. I still have them too - One is a little rose inside a vase made from an old fashion door knob. I was just looking at it yesterday and wondering how my family in Tennessee is doing. Then today, being a snowy and cold day I am just sitting behind my computer surfing the web and thought I would check out the on-line newspapers for the Obion County area to see what the news is there and then I find her obituary. I must have known something in my heart the other day when I had my remembering dream and what made me think of my family there. You see . . . even though we may be miles apart, we are still close in the heart. I love you Aunt Inez.##imported-begin##Barbara Houghteling##imported-end##
