“ I send my deepest sympathy to the entire Farmer Family. Always remember the wonderful times that you spent with him. Please find comfort in what the Bible says about the opportunity of seeing your loved one again under the very best of conditions: “There is going to be a resurrection.” --Acts 24:15
For more comfort please go to the following website <https://www.jw.org/en/video-why-study-the-bible> and then search for "When Someone You Love Dies" Brochure.

“ His name is Leborn Farmer, some called him Eap but to me he was Poppa. This is by far the strongest man I have ever met. He was full of joy and happiness. He was a hard worker, a great husband, a wonderful daddy, and beyond a magnificent Poppa! He created a wonderful strong family, and still to this day, we stick together like glue. He took care of his wife of 56 years, raised his five children, and picked up a few more along the way. He taught me in order to have anything in life you have to earn it. He not only taught good lessons but he lived by them. He told the best stories in the world. He would start telling stories and the room would stop to listen. He played a guitar and loved to dance. I'll never forget him dancing on the street in Obion. He would be the first to start and the last to stop. He sat in his recliner and shaved his face every morning for as long as I can remember. He loved his coffee black. He liked fishing. His favorite sport was baseball. His favorite person was his wife Shirley (he called her Mama). He was a fighter! He fought so long and so hard! He beat all odds! He held on for as long as he could and I know he didn't do it for himself. He did it for us, his family. He always put us first, all the way until the day the Lord took him home. As I sit here in tears, I realize that the world lost a good man and Heaven got a wonderful angel. I know that all who knew him are mourning a loss and those who didn't are suffering a bigger loss! Poppa I will miss you every day, but I will see you again one day. Please look over Granny as much as you can and ask Jesus to help her get through the great loss she is suffering! Until I see you again! I love you to the moon and back! -Pamela
