“ To family of Lillian;
My heart bleeds for you as her family, she spoken highly of you. My mother, Jimmie Knapton of Columbia, loved her dearly, I would take Mother and Mary Alice Johnson to see her, Ernest and Neal; they would take us over Reelfoot Lake and we always had to eat fish. Mother would have them in her home for Mule Day and she would love to take them on a road trip thru Maury and Hickman Counties and especially to Franklin, Tennessee. I so sorry of her death when I spoken with her I knew she was weak. I wish I could come and be with you tomorrow but it is almost impossible with a 3 hr. drive but my heart with be with you.
