“ Not many people get the blessing of having their parents with them for most of their lives. Remember her as she was---mother, grandmother and friend.
May your grief be brief in knowing the kind of life she lived was one to be admired by all who came in contact with her.##imported-begin##Jerry and Laura Thomason##imported-end##

“ Mary Ruth was not one in a million, she was most definitely one of a kind! She was a barrel of laughs every day when she was in her better days - she brought much sunshine to all who knew her. Her cynicism, wit, and humor was a trait that is not possessed by many in this world anymore... she hasn't been able to laugh for awhile now, but now she can laugh again - for eternity! And someday soon, we can all be sharing that happiness with her. May the Lord bless you and keep you always. It has been a joy to be a part of your life for the last few years. We love you.##imported-begin##Cindy Norrid Cox and girls##imported-end##
