“ I was a roommate to Nancy when we attended Freed-Hardemon College. She was the smartest and most unique person I have ever met. She could always make me laugh. Regretfully, we did not keep in touch. I will always remember her as a very special friend.##imported-begin##Bobbie Westerby##imported-end##

“ Nancy was a true friend to me and to everyone who loved her. She gave me a wonderful bulldog named Sitting Bull who went on the sire some gorgeous pups that she was so proud of. We traveled to dog shows in Atlanta and had the greatest times. We used to have long distance bills that were atrocious and we were thrilled with internet. I am so glad she and I spoke on the phone while she was in the hospital... To Sam and Debbie, I can only say how lovingly she spoke of you and her grandchildren.....she will be so missed by so many.##imported-begin##Carolyn Flynn##imported-end##

“ I first met Ann when Mr. Bill Ragain was in the County Nursing Home. She used to visit him there. I enjoyed their special friendship - seems they had known each other best through Mr. Lexie, her dad, making it a point to see that all the local servicemen received mail on a regular basis. They continued to be friends for life. Her loyalty and devotion to her friends and her literary love always impressed me. May you treasure the memories and the legacy of her life. Those are God's compensation of our earthly loss. ##imported-begin##Cindy Norrid Cox##imported-end##
