“ I will always remember the day you were born. You my son are the smartest, loving, caring, and helpful person I have ever known in my life. I never remember what life was like before you were born because your birth was the greatest moment of my life. You were a wonderful child, man and friend. As your mother I ask your advise from time to time. I will look forward to seeing you again so you can advise me again. My heart went with you when you were buried but I will see you again one day and we will catch up. You were the greatest son a mom could every dream of. Love you Rick this is not goodbye, I will see you again one day my beloved, special son.##imported-begin##Barbara Daniel Montgomery ( Rick's mom)##imported-end##

“ When we all still worked at World Color Richard was always a permanent fixture if there was any overtime to be done. The schedulers decided at one point that he just loved being there. I truthfully can't say that I ever saw him when he wasn't smiling. When all was said and done we were a family and it saddens me one more of us has left this earth. May God bless you Richard.##imported-begin##Evelyn Hall##imported-end##

“ Since we no longer have the opportunity to speak directly to "Little Rick" as we called him, I will direct our expressions of Love, Concern, and Care to Rick, Kristen, Barbara, Mrs. Freeda and all of the family surrounding Rick. We fell in Love with this Dear sweet family over 20 years ago and they seem like our on Brother and his family, Rick and Kristen were our so called adopted children and were either at our home or my children were in their home every week-end for several years when they lived in SC. Little Rick always was such a polite young man and always respectful to us. He definately would do anything within his power to help others out. Watched him many days take care of his younger sister and even be responsible for her friends that were visiting until his Dad got home from work. My daughter was one of the friends who stayed at their home alot and I must say in this day and time I never worried that Little Rick would do anything inappropriate or not watch over those girls like a guard dog until he was relieved of his duties by another adult. We send All of our Love, Hugs, and Prayer to the family during these difficult days. We may be miles apart but our Hearts are linked together in this time of grief! Sorry we can not be there to hold your hand right now but know you are in our Hearts and Minds! Love You All!###imported-begin##Will and Deborah Griffin aka Daddy Will and Mrs. Deborah###imported-end##

“ Only You and God knows what went wrong .. No more tears ,sorrow or pain for you now Superman ! But ,you will always be Missed and Loved in mine and so many others Hearts ! R.I.P with God Now ..... and to his Family & closest Friends,May God Bless and Lift You up through these forever difficult days ! My moment that i will never forget , superman and i worked together at Saralee in Douglas Department only know him for almost a year .We worked long hours but we still had to make the day go by, laughing and cutting .How he got the new name lol One of the operators named Dustin named (Rick) Superman, cause he would lay on his stomach all the time, on the floor to clean out from under his machine and he looked like he was flying . Rick laughed back and started making names for us then , superman was a very hard worker and I really enjoyed being his friend !###imported-begin###cynthia heatherly###imported-end##

“ Rick, Barbara, Kristen, David, Tatum and the rest of the Stover family, Our hearts are heavy and with you though physically we cannot be there. I am so sorry for the hole that is left in your lives. We have so many fun and precious memories of Rick and all of you from your SC days. Praying for peace and understanding and that God will keep you tight in his arms, this is the time he will carry you. We love you! Your SC family!###imported-begin###Donna Blight###imported-end##

“ Rick was always loving and so considerate of everyone else. I remember staying at Kristen's house back in the day and Rick would come home from where ever, and we would beg for him to take us somewhere, anywhere. He always did with no questions asked. I can hear him now hollering down the hall "Kristen" and we would be sitting in her room on the bed laughing because we knew he was coming after us for something. Rick had the biggest heart and would give you the shirt off his back. We need more people like him in this world. He will be missed by many. Rest in peace, Rick. I'll see you one day. Bro. Rick, Kristen, David, Mrs. Barbara....all of the family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I wish I could be there, but please know that you ALL are in my thoughts and prayers!###imported-begin###LaShea###imported-end##

“ I had the chance to meet this wonderful guy at worldcolor and work with him. Richard was a wonderful guy as well as a friend. He always wore a smile no matter what was going wrong and how bad of a day he was having. To his family I would say I'm sorry for your tragic loss. May God comfort you and hold you close. And to my friend Richard I bid you farewell I will never forget you or your smile that brightened so many people's lives. Good bye old friend R.I.P###imported-begin###Ronnie Duncan###imported-end##
