“ I was blessed in my life by having known both Betty and Horace Fuzzell. There are so many memories of living next to them in Obion as a little girl. Their garden was always my favorite thing in the summer. Ms. Betty kept us in fresh tomatoes, ice water and even the threat of a few deserved spankings. I can still remember Mr. Horace and my grandpa sitting on the tailgate of a truck selling tomatoes and other garden vegetables. Palestine Street in Obion will always hold a special place in my heart. Thanks Ms. Betty and Mr. Horace for the wonderful memories. You now have a special place in my heart beside my grandparents.

“ I am sorry to hear of Bet's passing. She was a great lady, and a wonderful friend. I loved knowing her through the years. Part of the daily trip to Roseoco's (Food Plaza, whatever it was as the years passed) was visiting with Bet as she worked in her yard. She was a vital part of Obion for me and my girls. A hard worker, forthright in her ways, and totally dedicated and devoted to her family - she was a woman of ethics and values. May her legacy strengthen each of us in our efforts to live an honorable life. We will be grateful to God for using her as an example.###imported-begin##Cindy (Norrid) Cox###imported-end##
