“ *To Jane's family,
We are honored to have known Jane and the kindness in her heart. She taught our boys, Nathan and Justin Forrester in Sunday School at Fairview. She was a light to them and to all who knew her. I will never forget her telling us how she met Joe. He saw her walking in Memphis and called her his Loretta Lynn. She was full of love for her children, grandchildren, church, and friends. We will always love Jane and we delight in the knowledge that she is in the company of our Father right now. Love, Robbie and Wanda Forrester*

“ From Oma Jean:

*I loved my cousin Jane
And love all of you in her family.
I have to be in Memphis all day Tuesday
For an emergency surgery follow-up due to a setback.
Otherwise I would be with you
To share with you in your loss
And in memory of Jane's great & fulfilling life.*

“ IN MEMORIAM (To Jane)
by Monte Byrn

*Jane of the sweet smile,
Her mother's gentle sweet nature,
Her dad's handsome face--so beautiful on her,
Her sister's serious-then-hilarious persona
Her brother's posture, calm, and reserve.*

*A loving, caring, supportive...
Wife to Joe Weeks,
Mom to her children
Joey, Kathy, Karen, Kim, Allen, & Mark
Grandma to her grandchildren—and greets
Aunt to niece and nephews.
Cousin and friend to so many.*

*A lovely and gentle soul
Who made all of us feel better
When we shared patches of time
With the patient, good, & kind person
Who was our dear Jane Wildee Weeks.*

*In memory of a very sweet lady. Ms Sylvia Jane Weeks. The mother of a dear friend who was so warm to me and made me feel so welcomed when I stayed in her home for almost a week several years ago. True southern hospitality at her home. We will miss you. God Bless.
