“ Just wanted to say I am so sorry for your loss. Like posted earlier I still remember dad coming in the gym when basketball practice was over and saying " How is it going ED?"

“ I had to laugh at the 'Ed' comment and it made me remember every time I'd have a moment of confusion or something Tim would say 'Big Red Truck'. He always said it was like the little yellow bus but for a 'special kind of stupid' people and I was one of them. I am gonna miss his wisecracks and aggravation. I know Nettie, Doris and momma r showing him around and he is making them laugh now. That makes me happy to know he is making them smile now:)

“ Where to begin... Tim was my baseball husband, he coached my son from the beginning to the end of his baseball career he taught him everything and made an amazing ball player out of him. He was more then just Coach Tim to us he was definitely family. I am at a loss of words at his untimely passing. Tim was an incredible man the kind that all men should strive to be.... I am truly honored to be able to call him my friend and am so happy I got to know him so well. He will be extremely missed.... I will miss you forever my friend...

“ I watched Tim grow up, get married, raise his children and later went to work with him at NWCX. he never greeted me by my name, he just called me Ed. I asked him one day why he called me Ed, was it because my middle name is Edward ? He grinned and said naw, its because you first name is Stup. I thought for a minute and finally got it (Stup-ed). he was a true friend and i will miss him dearly !

Tim was known to many as coach here in Hornbeak. He made every kid feel like they were a part of his family. He loved his community and was always a phone call away if you ever needed anything. I can say in all the years I've known Tim he and his family have been a true testiment of how people should treat others. Tim, I'm sorry your life ended early. But thank you for leaving us a memory of a full life that was spent always surrounded by friends and family and for showing us God's love by touching others with your willingness to make everyone feel like they were your friend. Til we meet again...

Tim and His sweet wife LeAnn and their family came to the church I attended yrs ago. Wynnburg Baptist Church. He was a kind and funny sweet man. We were all a family . I have precious memories of lots of laughs and fun times together. It seems like I remember him giving his life to Jesus while there. Not for sure on that but I know he was a praying man . I know he was a loving father and husband and a friend to all who met him. He will be missed.
