“ Dear Elaine
I am sitting here on computer and just saw where Mr. Willard passed. I want to say to you that you and Mr. Willard are precious people. Always good to our family.
I will be praying that God will comfort you. I know the struggle but also know heaven must be beautiful, more so now that our loved ones are there.

“ Mr. Willard was a good man. I worked in Ridgely with him and Elaine. Sad to hear of his passing. Prayers for Elaine and family. I know he is in heaven visiting with all that have gone on to that wonderful place to be with Jesus and all his angels. God is good, he keeps all promises to his children. In loving memory of Mr. Willard Stover. Ilene Hutcheson.

“ I know there's a big celebration going on right now in Heaven...bigger than all the reunions here on earth we used to have...and I know that daddy (Smokey) met him at the gate. They'll have lots of fishing to do, porch sitting, and sunsets to enjoy from such a wonderful perspective. I know you'll all miss Willard..

We will too. He and daddy had great times growing up in minnick, and we know where they're spending eternity...with our precious Savior. They'll be watching and waiting for the rest of us to get there...in til then, let your sweet memories sustain you, love of family and friends give you comfort, and the arms of Jesus give you comfort. We love you all. Pam Stover Tankersley, Tyler Tankersley, Ashley & Alan Faircloth, and June Stover.
