“ Deb, Trav, Trevor I am so very sorry for your loss, Randy was such a great guy, husband and father. I viewed the video tribute many times and wanted to say it was awesome. I feel your tremendous pain as the experience of losing MY awesome man "PaPaw" is one that STILL remains on a daily basis. I know Randy will be GREATLY missed, but, as we all know, he is in a much better, as well as, painfree place than any of us and you WILL one day be reunited. May God be with you and the rest of the family. Love and Prayers, Steph###imported-begin##Steph Simrell-Dodd###imported-end##

“ Dear Deborah and Clouse family and Peggy and Terry family, I am so sorry about your loss, but your loss is heaven's gain. I did not read the obituary in the Messenger until it was too late for visitation. I apologize for not being unable to attend the funeral, but you were in my thoughts and prayers. God saw his pain and decided it was time to call him home where there is no pain and sorrow. Always remember the will of God will not take you to where the grace of God will not protect you. May you and your families find comfort in knowing that you will meet Randy again. You are in prayers. May God wrap his loving arms around you and comfort you. May God bless each of you.##imported-begin##Carolyn Puckett Cook##imported-end##

“ Deborah and family, I am so saddened by the news. It is especially hard when someone so young, leaves us. Yet, this ole world puts its toll on each one of us in a different way, so now he is peace without stress, worries, or sickness. That leaves his love ones to feel the pain and emptiness in their hearts. I pray you will find the strength and courage to continue. My sincere sympathy.##imported-begin##Georgianna Whipple Scarborough##imported-end##
